e-Twinning Event: Happy Earth Day

The image shows a screenshot of a Padlet board. At the top, the URL <https://padlet.com/dfktnbyfufnfkmcrfz/82707vavcrfv> is visible. Below the URL, there is a search bar with the text "Поиск" and a home icon. The main content area features a post by Valentya Gatalska, dated 12 hours ago, with the title "Happy Earth Day" and the text "Earth Day is an annual event celebrated on April 22 worldwide." In the center of the board is a graphic with a globe, a tree, and a banner that reads "Earth Day April 22". The background of the board is a light green gradient with a stylized illustration of various trees and a globe at the bottom. A pink plus sign icon is located in the bottom right corner.

About this event

Earth Day is an annual event celebrated on April 22 worldwide. On that day various events are held to demonstrate support for environmental protection. Since 1970 Earth Day has been celebrated in more than 193 countries. Let's join this event: we may plant trees, flowers, clean the environment. There is a Padlet to display your photos and pictures about this event in your school: <https://padlet.com/dfktybyfufnfkmcrfz/82707vavcrfv>. You may also add your posters on this topic.

Paper is recyclable but not everyone recycles it. We've come to the point where people need to contribute to a greener environment by changing the way they manage their personal wastes.

My 9th graders decided to use pieces of recycled paper of different color and create an origami model. They took the photo of their product which I think is really wonderful.

Earth Day is an annual event celebrated on April 22 worldwide. On this day various events are held to demonstrate support for environmental protection.

This year our school also joined the celebration of Earth Day. Within the frameworks of eTwinning online events "Happy Earth Day" and "Celebrate Earth Day" I initiated organizing a school event "Save the Earth". The pupils spoke about the negative results of the man's activities on our Earth, presented their ideas what a man can do to reduce his negative impact on the earth, and presented what each of them can do in their daily life to reduce their footprint on the planet. The pupils also made some things from the rubbish. As an end of celebration, the pupils of

About this event

We celebrate the World Oceans Day on the 8th of June. More humans have walked on the Moon than have been to the deepest parts of planet Earth. Covering 70% of Earth's surface, the oceans are the largest habitat in the world yet we only know around 1% of the seafloor. Many mysteries surround the deep. I invite you to visit the Padlet <https://padlet.com/dfktybyfufnfkmcrfz/flx158wmdhjr> to dive into the oceans and explore amazing underwater life. You may add some interesting things too.

Red Tide:

The occurrence of red tide is technically called as 'Algal Blooming' by scientists. The ocean phenomenon occurs when there is a rapid growth or blooming of algae in the oceanic waters. The presence of red tide is highly dangerous as these algae can be fatal to birds, animals and even humans.

"A piece of Blastic" is a musical piece created and performed by my 6th pupils for our "BLASTIC" (a blast of plastic) project. It tries to tell a story. The ocean, represented by the blues, being threatened by all the others (things made of plastic). If interested in helping raising people's awareness to the excessive use of plastic, please join our group on Facebook:

Talking to Fabien Cousteau via Skype!!!

Getting to know Fabien Cousteau and his important work regarding the oceans. We were the only school in Portugal (and one of the few in the entire world) to have such an historic opportunity provided by Skype in the Classroom!

There's nothing more beautiful than the sea!
This is my village Marsaskala, Malta, at sunrise. BBQ season has started. We need to protect our beaches respecting the creatures that live in sea and coast.

This is a whim of nature. One of the smallest beaches in the world. The Atlantic has some treasures like this beach but it is necessary to make a great effort of conservation so that it continues being wild

The Padlet board features a vibrant background of a coral reef. It contains several posts by Jorge Cunha, each with a photo and a text overlay. The posts are arranged in a grid-like fashion. Each post includes a 'Добавить комментарий' (Add comment) button.

- Post 1: Photo of an underwater scene with a large fish. Text: "Golias... and the little aints...".
- Post 2: Photo of a boat on the ocean. Text: "The boot and the ocean We are so heavy, so little...".
- Post 3: Photo of a boot on a rock. Text: "Ocean is fun?! We pray for the fisherm".
- Post 4: Photo of a religious statue in a niche. Text: "The little nains... come to see the giant...".
- Post 5: Photo of a stone landmark. Text: "The stone land mark... is the insignificance of man."
